

K-PARK connects culture, business, education, and public life, creating an environment for communication, collaboration, and new initiatives.

K-PARK is being built as a bridge between Kazakhstan, Korea, and Central Asia.

Association of Kazakhstani Koreans

Learn more about K-PARK

Support the K-PARK project

Scan the QR code to contribute to the creation of K-PARK

+7 701 478 18 25

koreans.kz

koreans@akk-kz.network

K-PARK

THE CULTURAL & BUSINESS CENTER

International Cultural and Business Center in the city of Alatau

Opening – September 2027

Key project figures

10 ha
Area

1 million
Visitors per year

2027
Opening — September

65 m
Observation tower

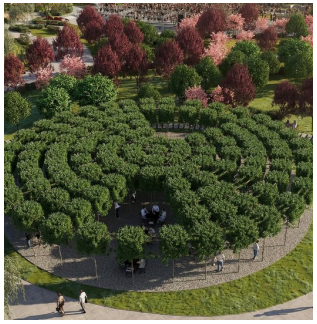

K-PARK is an open park area with green zones, walking paths, and public spaces where you can come for an event, meet friends, or spend time with family.

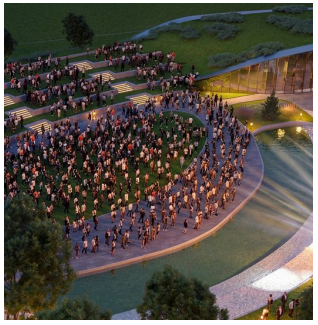

K-PARK Spaces

Cultural & Business Center

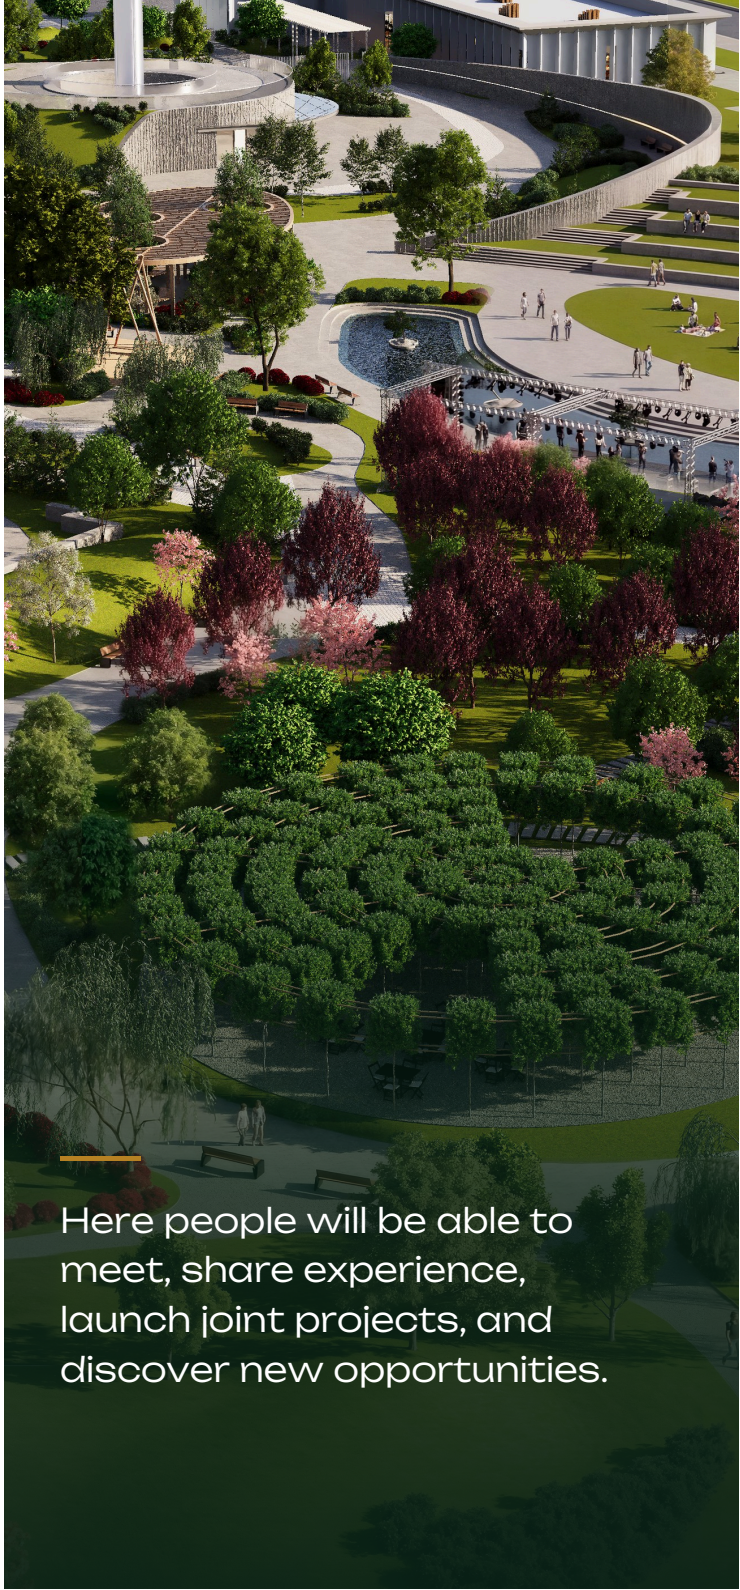

Conference Hall

Visitor Center

Park Spaces

Event Venue

Historical Reconstruction Zone

Here people will be able to meet, share experience, launch joint projects, and discover new opportunities.